

Policy #20
Solicitations and Public Displays

No solicitation is permitted on the Booth & Dimock Library property. Individuals or organizations wishing to showcase their cause may request use of library display space. Use of display space is subject to approval by the Library Director. When available, display space is available for 30 days. Library display use takes precedence over all other use.

Revised 2023
Adopted May 2004

